

Top Ten Reasons to Attend the Career Symposium

10. Because...FREE Food!
9. Because all the cool scientist are doing it
8. Because your LinkedIn Profile is blank
7. Because your experiment has a 24 hour incubation period
6. Because you want to meet PhD's that have found jobs
5. Because you need to learn how to talk to your mentor
4. Because you want to network with people who can employ you
3. Because the NIH said you need an IDP (or you don't know what an IDP is)
2. Because you need to find a "real" job
1. Because you are a "PhD" – Poor Hungry and Driven – and want to learn more regarding all your possible career options
